

Dear Chairman,

I rely on the do not call list to filter out unsolicited contacts. It would be to the detriment of all Americans to allow this invaluable service to be discontinued or diminished in any manner. I understand the need for the business community to be able to earn a living but their financial concerns can not be outweighed by the right of every American to quiet enjoyment of their homes.

Thank You

L. Dockery